अदित्यहृदयम्

॥ अदित्यहृदयम् ॥

(Introduction)

Before we begin , let us bow to Aditya , the Sun god, who bestows upon us all prosperity and who is capable of destroying all our enemies .

Aditya hridayam is a hymn to the Sun god and forms part of the canto 107 of the Valmiki ramayana . The setting is the battle field and the fight between Ravana and Lord Rama has just been suspended . The latter enters into a contemplative mood and is instructed by the sage Agastya on the glory of Aditya, the Sun God .

The great acharya without any equal, Shankara acharya, established the worship of five deities : Ganesha, Vishnu, Shakti, Shiva and Aditya .

The worship establishes the unique function of each deity while remembering the unity between Them. The unity between all of us is Brahman . Established in the space-time domain, the mind mistakes that the sun rises and sets. In reality, the sun is ever-present . Similarly, we mistake ourselves to be the body-mind complex and suffer , while in reality, we are Satchitananda, one without a second . To become aware of this Truth, one has to destroy all the enemies within (like kama, krodha, lobha, mada etc) and establish our minds at the lotus feet of the divine at all times . And recitation of this hymn will accomplish this seemingly impossible feat .

Though this hymn is said to Rama, who appears to be in a state of
